Mr. G. Madhavan: May I know whether it is the policy of Government?

Mr. V. Ramanuja Aiyangar: It cannot be said to be the policy of Government.

Travancore House.

247. ❋Mr. A. N. Satyanesan: Will the Government be pleased to state the terms and conditions on which the Travancore House at New Delhi is being lent for purposes of the Constituent Assembly?

Mr. V. Ramanuja Aiyangar: The buildings which are proposed to be lent, which were put up by the Government of India at their own expense, are temporary buildings not fit for permanent retention and are intended to be ultimately demolished by the Government of India at their own expense. The Government of India asked for permission of this Government to retain and use them for the use of the Constituent Assembly, and Government accepted the suggestion.
